Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

"My God, my God,

why have You forsaken me?

Why are You so far from saving me,

so far from my words of groaning?

I cry out by day, O my God,

but You do not answer,

and by night,

but I have no rest.

Yet You are holy,

enthroned on the praises of Israel.

In You our fathers trusted;

they trusted and You delivered them.

They cried out to You and were set free;

they trusted in You and were not disappointed.

But I am a worm and not a man,

scorned by men and despised by the people.

All who see me mock me;

they sneer and shake their heads:

“He trusts in the LORD,

let the LORD deliver him;

let the LORD rescue him,

since He delights in him.”

(Psalm 22:1-8)

In these beginning verses of Psalm 22 we are reminded of Christ and his cross. The first words of this Psalm are the same words which Christ proclaimed from the cross as expressed in Matthew's and Mark's Gospel accounts. Our minds are directed to the suffering servant, the one who Isaiah claims, "...on him was the chastisement that brought us peace... (Isaiah 53:5).

As Christ suffers and dies on the cross, he is fulfilling the scriptures. It is quite possible that this was not the only Psalm that Christ repeated on the cross. In pain and agony, his mind was remembering God's Word. In his darkest hour, he becomes the worm and the one scorned and despised by the people. He is taking our sin into himself to be the atoning sacrifice.

The book of Psalms is often referred to as the Prayerbook of the Bible. King David and a few others expressed themselves to God through 150 of them. Yet this one stuck out at the time of Christ's death for the Evangelists Matthew and Mark. Being completely forsaken by God is what we deserve, but Christ makes it not so. He puts himself in our place and incurs the wrath of the Father.

From the cross, we are freed from sin, death, and the devil. Christ has broken the chains that bind us to hell. He has set his enemies under him as his footstool. Baptism now saves us (1 Pet. 3:21) as it is wrapped in his cross (1 John 5).

As we go through the Lenten Season, let us be reminded of our own baptism. That we have been made partakers of the Kingdom of Heaven. That at our beautiful savior's cross we are made righteous to the Father in heaven. That we are not despised or a worm to our Father in heaven, but perfect in Christ Jesus.

Your servant in Christ,

Pastor Welmer

JoAnn Cutler, a Lutheran school teacher, shared this summary of Psalm 86 with me many years ago and it has made a lasting impression, "Love is an Act of Endless Forgiveness!". It is posted on my wall in my office and represents the love Jesus has shown, is showing, and will show from now to infinity.

This month we celebrate Valentine's Day and I want to expand its traditional focus. The act of loving our current or future spouse is needed, but this should be happening the other 364 days too. The expansion would be the sharing of gratitude and affection with family, friends, support persons, and any others God has blessed to be in your life. Pray for them and let them know they are special to you.

Each day at BCA we stress the importance of saying the words "Jesus loves you unconditionally and so do I." This is a choice for us in our response to Jesus demonstrating His love for us on the cross. BCA has been blessed with 216 children and their families to carry out our mission in word and deed.

We treasure our relationship with our churches and pray that all your days are filled with the joy and love of Jesus.

With a grateful mindset,
David Topp
